

RESOURCE SPENDING

In fiscal year 2018-19, the Library spent $1,716,738 on electronic resources.

FISCAL SUSTAINABILITY

The Health Sciences Library continuously monitors the cost per usage (CPU) for all electronic resources. When a journal has a low CPU, it is a better return on our investment to buy those articles on demand than to license the full Journal.

BEST RETURN ON INVESTMENT

With an average turnaround time of 28 hours for article delivery, Document Delivery provides journal content at a sustainable price. Last year, the Health Sciences Library spent $39,316 to supply our customers with 11,828 articles.

We saved $315,524 in article fees through resource sharing collaborations, and a total of $8,429,452 on full e-journal licenses.

AFTER HOURS

371 people registered to use our AfterHours program in 2018-2019

What some of our students are saying:

- “ Since I have signed up for the 24 hours access, my grades have improved significantly ”
- “ I love the Library AfterHours program, it's one of my favorite programs at Upstate ”
